Third Sunday Of Lent

(Sunday of the Adoration of the Cross)

The third Sunday of Lent is dedicated to the adoration of the holy Cross, the sign of Christ's victory over Satan and human passions. At the Matins after the Velyke Slavoslovia the priest takes the cross adorned with flowers and carries it in procession to the tetrapod. There it remains throughout the whole week for the the veneration of the faithful.

The Church displays the holy Cross to strengthen her children in their work of salvation and to exhort them to do penance during Lent. Christians must carry their daily crosses if they want to be true followers of a Crucified Lord and save their immortal soul.
