FAVORITES FOR FATHER

NEW YORK (CP) — Again this year most American dads will receive the traditional Father's Day gifts of ties, lotions and cigars, according to research by the Father's Day Council Inc. The council's executive director says the lasting appeal of such gifts is their availability up to the last minute. Father's Day, which falls on June 20 this year, is second only to Christmas in volume of sales of men's goods and toiletries.
