

and for bed. They keep their own rooms clean."

The Robsons' 100-year-old house has five bedrooms and is surrounded by more than two acres of land.

Mrs. Robson's formula for child care: "Basically, it boils down to loving them and showing them you care. With love, a child will do anything for you."

The Robsons usually have eight children with them at one time.

As they sit down to a meal at

Be Anywhere

MONCTON, N.B. (CP)—Police reported no leads Tuesday in the search for a 25-year-old Moncton man wanted in connection with the theft of $26,300 from a Bank of Montreal branch here.

The man, whose name was not released, "could be anywhere," said Fred Shea, Deputy Chief of the Moncton Police Force. The suspect's car was missing, he added, "but I may only have been driven a short distance."

Information charging the man with theft was laid Monday after the money disappeared last week. It was discovered missing when a sealed bag was opened in Saint John after being delivered by armoured truck from the bank here.

UKRAINIAN WOMEN'S CLUB in their new home.

The first meeting of 1971 of the Ukrainian Catholic Women's Club was held on Jan. 12. Rev. Fr. Wrobecki opened the meeting with prayer.

The retiring committee, whose executive consisted of Lydia Tetanish, president; Florence Kowal, vice - president; Mary Swatko, secretary; Annie Bobyk, treasurer; Jean Medora, catering bookings; gave their annual reports. A Christmas party was enjoyed by the members bringing the past year's activities to an end. A farewell gift was presented to Mrs. Jean Medora prior to her leaving for Halifax, where she will take up residence. The members wished Jean and her family best wishes

A discussion took place concerning future plans for the coming year — plans included a Fall Fair. The following executive was elected for 1971: President Marci Elchyshyn, Vice-president Kaye Melenchuk, treasurer Florence Mahalik, assistant treasurer Ella Nalepa, secretary Betty Marmulak, new bookings for the hall will be administered by Stella Horechuk.